

Hey Kids

Why should adults listen to kids?

Age 10-13

Hayden

age 10

Kids have better ideas

Maddi

age 10

Because they have a very creative mind

Cameron

age 10

Kids can have some good ideas sometimes

George

age 10

So they know all the kids secret plans

Lucy

age 10

So they can have their say

Blake

age 10

Because we look at things a lot differently from adults

Bella

age 10

Because everyone has a say

Evie

age 10

So kids can tell adults what is right

Alice

age 10

Because adults are sometimes wrong and kids should have a say too

Libby

age 10

Because sometimes children can have ideas that are more relevant than adults ideas. Children can have a different point of view than adults.

Kartie

age 10

When it comes to learning new sports, we have more experience than adults. We also have imagination and inspiration than most adults. Everyday we are being told to do things and are being ticked off by teachers for giving some helpful suggestions

Why should adults listen to kids?

Oscar
age 10

Because kids have a lot of imagination

Nya
age 10

No answer

Kate
age 10

think adults should listen to kids because even though you have lots of choices and we depend on you, this world is going to be ours in a few decades, and us kids are the ones with the most recent information and the hardest time, because of global warming, overpopulation, poverty, the list goes on! But kids who might seem inexperienced, are the ones dealing with the trouble generations of people have caused, so please give us a say.

Lucy
age 10

Because we have fun ideas to do and should be respected as much as adults.

Emily
age 10

Some times kids are right and can have good ideas. Kids can be smart and creative.

Isabella
age 11

Our words are true and from the heart

Dom
age 11

Because adults are not always the smart ones – kids know stuff too. And adults don't know everything.

Oscar
age 11

Because adults have already lived their child life, they should try and make their children's life better

Daniel
age 11

So they know what's right

Isobel
age 11

Because it might be important and everyone has a say in anything

Deklan
age 11

Because sometimes kids get things right and it actually happens

Declan
age 11

Because kids are usually correct

Haylea
age 11

Because everyone has their own opinion that deserves a chance to be heard

Mia
age 11

Because kids have a way to help

Rachael
age 11

So we could have a opinion of what happens to this city

Dominic
age 11

Because kids should have a say

Kayla
age 11

Because we need to have a good range of opinions and this is the world WE will be growing up in

Charlotte
age 11

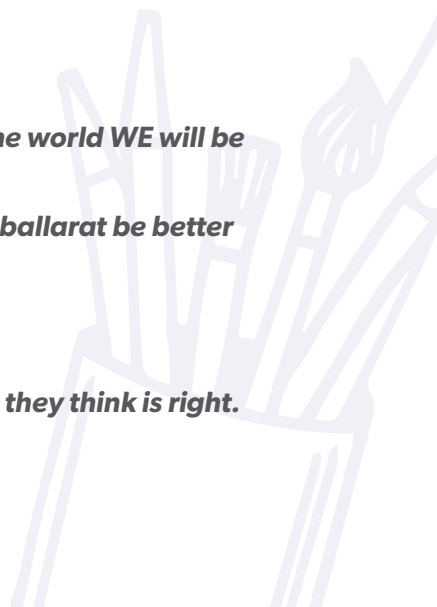

Because our voices matter too and we can have ideas that help ballarat be better

Finn
age 11

Because kids can do a lot and come up with great ideas

Shing
age 11

I feel that children should have a chance to be free and do what they think is right.

Why should adults listen to kids?

Mary
age 11

Kids have interesting things, statements and opinions to share with adults and other kids. sometimes we might have good ideas for an invention, have creative minds and making the world a better place.

Kipp
age 11

Because we are people too

Keira
age 11

Because they have really important and interesting things to say most of the time and kids are very adventures and like to find things out and they should have there opinion on things and have their say

Billy
age 11

Because we are the future

Kate
age 11

Because we know stuff that adults may not know

Lily
age 11

Because we have opinions too and they might not always be good ones but we should still get an opinion

Finn
age 11

Because kids see the world differently

Angus
age 11

Because kids have a voice too

Alexsander
age 11

Because kids are part of life and we are just younger so we have a voice

Gabe
age 11

Because we sometimes notice thing adult's don't

Alyssa
age 11

Because kids can have just as good of ideas as adults

Harper
age 11

Adults should listen to kids because there opinion is no more important then ours. We are all human so why do adults have more input just because they have gone to school longer than us why does that mean that they are more important

Tahlia
age 11

I believe adults should listen to us because we are full of great ideas that could save the world some day. We have a voice that could be the future

Olivia
age 11

Because they might show or tell you cool things

Laela
age 11

Just because adults have been living longer and have been here longer doesn't mean that they know more. For example, a 14 year old kid could possibly know more than a 34 year old. A 14 year old could have learnt more than in their 14 years than a 34 year old.

Isabella
age 11

Because we have a voice and we can lead too

Archie
age 11

Because kids know more about the 21st century

Thomas
age 11

Because kids have every right to do whatever

Piper
age 11

Because everyone should have a say in what's right

Sam
age 11

Because kids may have a really good idea

Why should adults listen to kids?

Alan
age 11

Because we are the next generation

Eamonn
age 11

Because they have more imagination than adults

Lucy
age 11

We give adults a say, kids should have those same rights

age 11

Because children still have an opinion and are part of our community. Children's ideas may not always be good but neither are adults. They may have a brilliant thing to say and it is worth listening to them

Kloee
age 11

Because we give everything a go and

Lilac
age 11

Because children should get a chance

Isaac
age 11

Kids are generally more creative and come up with more ideas

Millie
age 11

Adults should listen to kids because we are, the future and we will eventually have jobs and make a difference. Sometimes kids see problems adults overlook. However old we might be, we have amazing ideas, and these ideas can make a big difference.

Tyler
age 11

Adults sometimes need kids to have more open opinion to everyday decisions or to benefit the community.

William
age 11

Adults should listen to kids because kids aren't focused on so many things like work and gardening, also it seems its time for a change. Its been kids listening to adults since the Big Bang.

Mia
age 11

Everyone should get a say so kid's should get a say to.

Jacob
age 11

Because kids may have something important to say, they have a good idea, or that they have some useful information.

Baylee
age 11

Because sometimes kids are right and cant stand up for them selfs and some kids have really good ideas for the future

Evie
age 12

Everyone is entitled to have their own opinions. However, in lots of kids cases, adults will think that they know more and unfortunately; they will doubt the children and not let them have any say.

Finn
age 12

Kids can (sometimes) have very imaginative thoughts and ideas. They may also have picked up modern creativity and methods.

Tayla
age 12

So we can have a say in our city we live in

Macy
age 12

Because they are adults and most of them know the right thing

Bailee
age 12

Adults should listen to kids because our voices matter and we all deserve a chance to voice our opinions

Quistis
age 12

So we get to have an opinion of what happens to our city and help it get better

Jai
age 12

Because they might have some great suggestions

Why should adults listen to kids?

Bailey

age 12

They might have good suggestions sometimes

Harvey

age 12

Because kids can find help

Kaylee

age 12

Adults should hear what children have to say because they could be good ideas and EVERYONE deserves to have their say

Joel

age 12

Because kids can have creative ideas (so can adults), but also because kids should have a say in society

Lincoln

age 12

Because some times kids can have very good ideas and they can help you a lot in life

Finnigan

age 12

Because kids have good ideas and they just might be life changing

Abbey

age 12

Because kids have a different perspective

Ella

age 12

I believe that adults should acknowledge and listen to kids because sometimes we may be small, but we should ALWAYS have a say in what's right and some of the best ideas come from kids who know what they want and we need to be able to say what's right.

Ari

age 12

Because they can have more ideas that are creative

Ned

age 12

Because times have changed. Things people technology have changed and Ballarat is living in the past not in the current state of the world if you listen to me and other children we can get up to date with things and for once be ahead of other places.

Madeleine

age 12

Because we know what we want and when we are somewhat ignored by adults, we feel as though we are not important or we are just a nuisance.

Harry

age 12

Because they might have really good idears and thoughts

Rex

age 12

Because kids are the future, in 50 years' time, it will be our world

Emily

age 12

Kids are leaders of the future, you don't know, you might be saying 'you don't know nothing coz you're a kid.' When they could be a future Albert Einstein or President

Edward

age 12

Because everyone has there own opinion, and even children can have good ideas for the future

Ella

age 12

Because kids have good ideas

Brooke

age 12

Because everyone has a say, it wouldn't be fair for kids not to have a voice in the world just because of their age

Thomas

age 12

Kids know more about the present day and they want a great city in the future

Billy

age 12

Kids have to have a say in what ballarat because kids do most of the things

Hudson

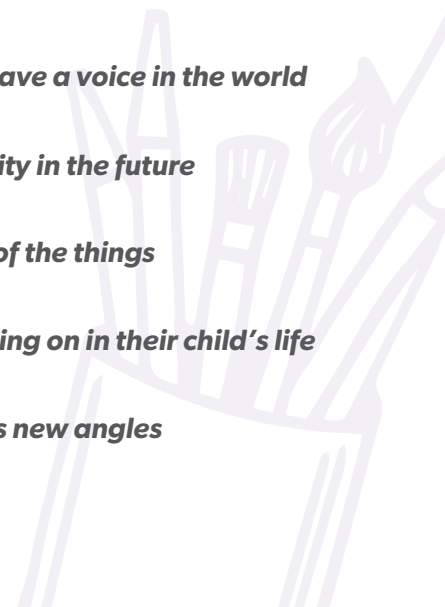

age 12

Because if they don't then the parents won't know anything going on in their child's life

Ellen

age 12

Because kids have a fresh perspective on things, and give ideas new angles

Why should adults listen to kids?

Emily
age 12

Because kids are the future

Millie
age 12

We're the ones that are going to live in adults choices we know what we want to live in and how we want the world to be

age 12

Just because someone is older than another person, does not mean they are smart and know whats best

Maddi
age 12

Kids can teach or help adults to remember things like when to pick up the letters?

Nivash
age 12

Adults should listen to kids because kids have younger ideas that other kids their age will probably agree with as well as this is the world the kids are going to live in so if any changes are taking place they should probably check with the kids!

Reuben
age 12

Because sometimes kids learn different things then adults have in school

Milo
age 12

To make it fare for all people

Gloria
age 12

Adults should listen to kids because most of the time we have something important to say

Rufus
age 12

Because we need someone to talk to

Jasper
age 13

Because kids have ideas that are potentially life changing. Some kids have campaigned about global warming and pollution.
