

REUSABLE NAPPY, REUSABLE SANITARY PRODUCTS, AND REUSABLE BREAST PAD REBATE TRIAL
TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Trial period from 1 March 2022 for a period of six months has been extended to 30 June 2023 (or until funding is exhausted).
- The maximum amount claimable by residents participating in the rebate program is:-
  - 50% of the purchase price, up to a maximum of $100 for reusable cloth nappy products;
  - Rebate for cloth nappies includes cloth nappies, reusable swim nappies, reusable training nappies, reusable inner liner for nappies, reusable wet bags, reusable wipes associated with cloth nappies
  - 50% of the purchase price, up to a maximum of $100 for reusable sanitary products; Rebate for reusable period and sanitary products, including reusable sanitary pads, period proof bathers, leak proof underwear, reusable incontinence products and menstrual cups
  - 50% of the purchase price, up to a maximum of $50 for reusable breast pads per household, or those that provide a receipt showing proof of purchase and prove that they are a resident of the City of Ballarat.
- The rebate does not include transport costs, nappy hire, wipes containers, decorative (ie not leaf-proof) nappy covers, postage/delivery or single-use items.
- The applicant must reside in the property within the City of Ballarat that is requesting the rebate and provide proof of residence in the form of rates notice / utility account / drivers licence, which is a maximum of 3 months old.
- Council will accept only one application for each rebate per house household for the period of the trial.
- To apply for a rebate for each category, applicants will need to fill in separate application forms.
- The applicant must provide a copy of the receipt or proof of purchase. It must clearly identify the company name, date of purchase and name and cost of each item purchased.
- Receipt or proof of purchase must be no older than 3 months and be whole, not a partial copy.
- The proof of residence must be dated within 3 months of the proof of purchase date.
- Applications are to be submitted online or if an applicant does not have computer access, applications can be completed at Council's Customer Service at the Phoenix Building.
- Successful applicants will have the rebate transferred to their nominated bank account within 21 days.
- The City of Ballarat holds no responsibility for following up missing information supplied by the applicant.
- The City of Ballarat holds the right to reject any application on the basis it is determined ineligible.
- The rebate program may be paused at any time if Council's budget allocation has been exhausted.
- Customer Service point of contact for questions.