ARTS AND HISTORY

Art Gallery of Ballarat

The Art Gallery of Ballarat is the heart of the creative city of Ballarat. A place for Ballarat to look beyond everyday life; to be inspired and engaged by art. Nineteenth-century beliefs placed the Gallery at the centre for social contact, inclusion, and learning. Much of the context has changed over time, yet the central truth of the Gallery's original manifesto 'Not for self but for all' is as relevant today as it was then – the Gallery exists for its audience.

Our purpose is to reflect the story of Ballarat; past, present and future. To champion audience experience and the accessibility of art. We tell the stories of 'now', by looking back, looking forward, looking inward, looking out.

BALLARAT IS AUSTRALIA'S FIRST INTERCULTURAL CITY

We may all come from different backgrounds and cultures, but as a community we share the same schools, businesses, workplaces, recreation spaces and services.

Ballarat, as an Intercultural City, builds on the concept of all of us living together in a vibrant, diverse and harmonious community.

Our culturally diverse communities bring a wealth of global skills, experiences and innovative ideas which enrich the cultural fabric of our intercultural city.
